XUM

P

INDEX

Volume II 1933

A

Adams, Josephine, and Westfall, Martha: Combination Lunches in Junior High Schools. January, 17.
Equipment and Layout for High School Cafeterias. February, 47.
Cooperation in Cafeteria Management. March, 79.
To See and to Use. June, 179.
Five Cent Salads and Sandwiches in the School Cafeteria. September, 259.
Addkison, Elsmer W.: Plate Lunches in the School Cafeteria. August, 242.
Allen, Edith L.: Housing as a Classroom Subject. January, 22.
Amery, Elizabeth: The Function of Home Economics in the Program for Relief and Reconstruction. December, 358.
Ames, Helen B.: New Finishes for Old Furniture. October, 292.
Arnold, Frank R.:
Shopping Trail in Europe. May, 142.
The Monthly Home Economics Exhibit. July, 198.
Art as a Factor in Everyday Living; Theodora Pottle. June, 169.
Artistic Lamps from Southwestern Pottery; E. E. Keefer. June, 176.

B

Babcock, Ella. June, 174. (Who's Who.)
Baker, G. Gordon: Teaching a Boy to Cook and a Girl to Saw. June, 182.
Baker, Lilian C. W.: Personality Development Guidance in Teacher Training Institutions. February, 41.
Barber, M. I. June, 175. (Who's Who.)
Barclay, Edna: A Class In Infant Hygiene. August, 238.
Barrows, Hazel:
A Class Project of Welfare Work. June, 167.
Our Vocational Dressmaking Course. October, 293.
Baylor, Adelaide S.: November, 321. (Who's Who.)
Be a Roman; Cora B. Miller. Jan. 16.
Bedell, Florence J.: How Much Drawing? January, 7.
Beeman, Mary:
Efficient Management of the Large Class. July, 202.
Home Projects for College Students. August, 224.
Benson, Edna J.: The Value of Cooperation. September, 256.
Better Results in Home Project Work; Mabel Wilson. May, 144.
Betty Ames Prepares for Business; Louise J. Peet. April, 105.
Blunt, Katherine. August, 233. (Who's Who.)
Bohm, Max: The Evening Meal. September (Frontispiece).
Book Reviews:
January, 27.
"About Foods and Markets"; A. E. Albrecht.
March, 86.
"To Think of Tea"; Agnes Repplier.
"The Lace Book"; Jessie E. Caplin.
"The Golden Grains"; Child and Boynton.
"Cultivating the Child's Appetite"; C. A. Aldritch.
"Alice in Wonderland"; Lewis Carroll.
May, 154.
"Junior Home Economics" series:
"Food,"
"Clothing,"
"Living in Our Homes"; Hazel Shultz.
"Improvised Equipment in the Home Care of the Sick"; Lyla M. Olson.
"Gardening with Herbs for Flavor and Fragrance"; Helen M. Fox.
July, 211.
"Spending the Family Income"; S. Agnes Donham.
"Table Service"; Lucy G. Allen.
"Good Meals at Low Cost."
"Evaporated Milk Around the World"; F. E. Rice.
"Grocery Qualities and Prices"; Roland S. Vaile and Alice M. Child.
"Story of Coffee"; I. N. Young.
"History Home Economics in Georgia"; Standards Committee, Georgia Home Economics Ass'n.
"Health and Home Nursing"; George Margaretta Douglas.
August, 241.
"The Vitamins in Health and Disease"; Barnett Sure.
"Food in Health and Disease"; Katherine M. Thoma.
"Pierre's 60 Profitable Sandwiches"; Pierre J. Berard.
"Practical and Profitable Chinese Recipes"; Emory Hawcock.
"Sixty Profitable Vegetable Plate Combinations"; Alice Easton.
"Diet in Sinus Infections and Colds"; Egon V. Ullman, M.D.
"The Science of Housecraft"; A. L. Stenhouse and E. Stenhouse.
"The Handbook of Domestic Duties"; Mrs. Ann Nicholas.
October, 304.
"Your Home and Family"; Marjorie Ott.
"Costume Design and Illustration"; Ethel Traphagen.
Book reviews (Continued):
November, 336.
"Economic Problems of the Family"; Hazel Kirk.
"Making the Most of Your Income"; Harvey A. Blodgett.
"Cafeteria Recipes"; M. E. Schadt.
"Eat, Drink and Be Merry in Maryland"; Frederick P. Stieff.
"What Shall I Eat?" Edith M. Barber.
Brackett, Charlotte M.:
Work Units in Textile Analysis. February, 37.
Work Units in the Study of Starches and Their Effect on Washable Fabrics. September, 251.
Brannigan, Elizabeth:
Model Housing Projects. February, 43.
The Development of Cooking. March, 74.
The Further Development of Cookery. April, 109.
Plant Forms in Ornament. July, 216.
Do You Know—There is Nothing New About Fancy Gloves? October, 300.
Do You Know—That Two Hundred Years Ago Winter Dresses Were Winter Coats? November, 332.
A Breakfast Unit for High School Girls; Myra Sowell. November, 315.
Buckley, Mary M.: Budget Study in the Home Economics Class. March, 78.
Budget Study in the Home Economics Class; Mary M. Buckley. March, 78.
Butterfield, Melba: Good Make-Up (Poem). January, 16.
Buying Fruits and Vegetables for the Cafeteria; L. H. Leubbers. June, 177.
Buying the Institution's Groceries; L. H. Leubbers. March, 82.
Byerly, Fred L.: Building Efficient Work Units for the School Cafeteria. December, 361.

C

Cakes for the King's Birthday; D. G. Spicer. December, 354.
Care and Use of the Sewing Machine; Annie Kemp. February, 54.
Cassatt, Mary: "La Toilette." October (Frontispiece).
Catering to the College Girl; Lita H. Luebbers. August, 243.
Century of Progress Kitchens. Nov., 325.
Child Development and Home Economics in Minnesota; Esther McGinnis and A. I. Keever. June, 171.
A Child Development Unit; Gladys E. Robinette. September, 253.
Child Training among the Aztecs; John Ruhrah. August, 228.

Christy, Erma B.:
The School Cafeteria Helps to Solve the Depression Problem. Feb. 50.
Community Services as a Means of Developing the Home Economics Viewpoint. November, 318.
Clark, Mary Margaret:
Home Economics for the Parents. August, 232.
Commencement Vitalized by Home Economics. December, 366.
A Class in Infant Hygiene; Edna Barclay. August, 238.
Cleveland, Doris: So You're Going to Milwaukee. May, 137.
Cobb, Winnie Mae: Opportunities for Home Economics in the Present Crisis. July, 199.
Combination Lunches in Junior High Schools; M. Westfall and J. Adams. January, 17.
Community Services as a Means of Developing the Home Economics Viewpoint; Erma B. Christy. November, 318.
Connect with Health; Margaret B. Harris. August, 239.
The Copeland Bill—S1944; E. H. Wharton. December, 352.
A Contract on the Care of the House for Freshman High School Girls; Bess Oerke. January, 15.
The Cooking Engineer, A Play; Madeline S. Long. February, 44.
Cooperation in Cafeteria Management; M. Westfall and J. Adams. March, 79.
Courses in Stage Costuming and Retail Merchandising. March, 89.
Cushman, Ruth: A Practical Fashion Show. August, 236.

D

Dale, Jane: Economy in Food Selection. October, 288.
Denny, Grace G.: Textile Arts in the American Home. May, 131.
Depression Upkeep; Cora B. Miller. March, 78.
The Development of Cooking; Elizabeth Brannigan. March, 74.
Developing Home Economics Course Under Difficulties; Madge M. Rhyne. August, 238.
A Dollar a Day Diet; Letta M. Wampler. April, 103.
Dolls of Our Grandmothers. July, 214.
Do You Know—
Gingerbread Was a Favorite with the Ancients? Dorothy G. Spicer. October, 300.
That Almond Cakes Were Eaten in Ancient Rome? Dorothy G. Spicer. November, 332.
There is Nothing New about Fancy Gloves? Elizabeth Brannigan. October, 300.
That Two Hundred Years Ago Winter Dresses Were Winter Coats? Elizabeth Brannigan. November, 332.
The Drink of God's People; Dorothy G. Spicer. January, 13.
Dunlap, Mabel: A Unit in the Selection of Shoes. November, 319.
"A Dutch Kermesse"; Jan Steen. June (Frontispiece).

E

Economizing in the Clothing Department. July, 205.
Economy in Food Selection; Jane Dale. October, 288.
Economy Week as a School Project. July, 210.
Eddy, Josephine F.: Trends in Children's Clothing. February, 40.
Edwards, Margaret M.: Opportunities Open to Home Economics College Graduates. August, 223.
Efficient Management of the Large Class; Mary Beeman. July, 202.
Ehlers, Mabelle S.: New Facts on Quality Foods in Quantity. September, 261.
Elliott, Essie L. December, 359. (Who's Who.)
Equipment and Layout for High School Cafeterias; M. Westfall and J. Adams. February, 47.
Equipment Problems in the Small School Lunch Room; Daisy M. Stackhouse. November, 328.
Estarabadi, Edith N.: A Text Book for the Private School? January, 15.
Evaluation of Training for Boys in Home Economics; Fay Mack. April, 104.
"The Evening Meal"; Max Bohn. September (Frontispiece).
The Exhibits of 4-H Club Girls at the International Live Stock Exposition; Blanche E. Hyde. March, 77.
Experimenting in a Lunch Room; Annie R. German. August, 244.
An Experiment in Serving Hot Lunches; Luella A. Williams. January, 19.
Exploratory Home Economics for Junior High Schools; Opal Waymire List. July, 214.

F

Facts for Food Teachers. A Good Cup of Coffee; Doris W. McCray. January, 21.
The Family Clothing Problem; Freda J. G. Winning. November, 316.
Feeding Elementary School Children by Cafeteria Service; Mae D. Paige. November, 326.
Felt Award Letters as a Home Economics Project; Donna J. McBryan. July, 216.
Fillebrown, A. Louise: The History of Wallpaper. August, 230.
Filling the Gap Between Knowing and Doing; Marcia E. Turner. May, 138.
Five Cent Salads and Sandwiches in the School Cafeteria: M. Westfall and J. Adams. September, 259.
Flint, Lydia: Home Economics in Turkey. June, 182.
Food for Thought:
February, 52.
March, 84.
Freegard, Ruth:
Home Projects Strengthen Home Economics. February, 52.
September, 258. (Who's Who.)
Frontispieces:
"Tea Time"; William Paxton. January.
"Two Women of the Tachibanacho and a Hairdresser"; Kiyonaga. February.
"Isabella Clara Eugenia"; Frans Pourbus. March.
Dry Goods Store in Japan. April.
A Colonial Spinster. May.
"A Dutch Kermesse"; Jan Steen. June.
Good Health in Summer. July.
"A Lady and Gentleman in Black"; Rembrandt. August.
"The Evening Meal"; Max Bohm. September.
"La Toilette"; Mary Cassatt. October.
"A Sewing Bee in Holland"; Von Uhde. November.
The Carol Singers. December.
The Function of Home Economics in the Program for Relief; Elizabeth Amery. December, 358.
The Further Development of Cookery; Elizabeth Brannigan. April, 109.

G

Ganz, Alma M. June, 175. (Who's Who.)
Geiger, Vincent: New Opportunities in Home Economics as a Principal Sees It. July, 204.
German, Annie R.: Experimenting in a Lunch Room. August, 244.
Girl Scouts' Homemaking Activities; Phyllis Jackson. January, 11.
Good Food for Little Money. January, 21.
A Good Idea. January, 20.
Good Make-up (Poem); Melba Butterfield. January, 16.
Grable, Katharine Lee:
Teaching Color Appreciation. September, 255.
What Color and Why—Clothing. October, 287.
What Color and Why—Interiors. December, 366.
Graded Difficulties in Teaching Foods; M. P. Ringle. June, 166.
Greer, Carlotta C.: Report of the Cooperative Studies Committee. January, 8. — June, 174. (Who's Who.)
Griffin, Mary H.: Origin of Salads and Mayonnaise. July, 208.

H

Hamilton, Fay: Artistic Lamps from Southwestern Pottery. June, 176.
"A Hande-Kercher at Thy Girdle"; Dorothy Gladys Spicer. May, 141.
Harbes, Junieta L.: Home Economics in Rural High Schools. January, 24.

18378

Harris, Margaret B.: Connect with Health. August, 239.
Hess, Adah. June, 175. (Who's Who.)
Heuer, Leon Anne:
When We Buy Fabrics. January, 6.
Your Table and Its Appointments. August, 231.
The High School Graduating Dress; Millie Pearson. January, 26.
The History of Wallpaper; A. Louise Fillebrown. August, 230.
Hobbs, Gertrude: School Lunches at Hammonton, Ohio. October, 298.
A Home Appreciation Course; Lita H. Luebbers. January, 5.
Home Economics and Life Attitudes; Ira S. Wile. January, 9.
The Home as Consumer; Paul H. Nystrom. July, 195.
Home Economics at a Century of Progress; Blanche E. Hyde. May, 139.
The Home Economics Class and Everyday Clothing Needs; Elsie Wilson. March, 69.
Home Economics for the Parents; Mary Margaret Clark. August, 232.
Home Economics in Poland; Euphemia Torry. October, 285.
Home Economics in Port Chester High School; Diane Sugarman. October, 290.
Home Economics in Rural High Schools; Junieta L. Harbes. January, 24.
Home Economics Is Practical in Sweden; Euphemia Torry. November, 323.
Home Economics Problems in Rural Schools; Helen E. Lockwood. March, 88.
Home Lighting Economy Hints; Robert W. Jeffery. October, 291.
A Home Management Course; Anne Heere Smith. August, 237.
A Home Project Camp; Gladys Wyckoff. February, 45.
Home Projects for College Students; Mary Beeman. August, 224.
Hood, Grace G.: Impressions of Foods and Markets Here and There in Europe. April, 107.
Hot School Lunches in Rural Rhode Island; Doris K. Sutcliffe. July, 207.
Housing as a Classroom Subject; Edith L. Allen. January, 22.
How May We Stimulate Taste in the Selection of Clothing? Uva Janney. December, 351.
How Much Drawing? Florence J. Bedell. January, 7.
How We are Meeting the Present Economic Challenge; Gladys Jacobson. May, 135.
Humphrey, Alice: Home Management Classes. May, 136.
Hunt, M. Mildred: School Lunch Organization in Small Schools. April, 116.
Hyde, Blanche E.:
The Exhibits of 4-H Club Girls at the International Live Stock Exposition. March, 77.
Sewing Aids from Notion Counters. April, 106.
Home Economics at a Century of Progress. May, 139.
The Use of Sewing Machine Attachments. July, 196.
Indian Art and Its Use in Homes of Today. December, 355.

I

Impressions of Foods and Markets Here and There in Europe; Grace Gordon Hood. April, 107.
Indian Art in Homes of Today; B. E. Hyde. December, 355.
In Home Management Classes; Alice Humphrey. May, 136.
Institutional Management Course. January, 28.

J

Jan Steen. "A Dutch Kermesse." June (Frontispiece).
Janney, Uva: How May We Stimulate Good Taste in the Selection of Clothing? December, 351.
Jeffery, Robert W.: Home Lighting Economy Hints. October, 291.

K

Kauffman, Treva E. December, 359. (Who's Who.)
Keefer, Elizabeth E.: Artistic Lamps from Southwestern Pottery. June, 176.
Keever, Aura I.: Child Development and Home Economics in Minnesota. June, 171.
Kemp, Annie: The Care and Use of the Sewing Machine. February, 54.

L

"A Lady and Gentleman in Black"; Rembrandt. August (Frontispiece).
Lewis, Edna: The Lunchroom, An Undeveloped Natural Resource. October, 295.
List, Opal Waymire:
Exploratory Home Economics for Junior High Schools. July, 214.
Planning the Family Christmas. November, 330.
Lockwood, Helen E.: Home Economics Problems in Rural Schools. March, 88.
Long, Madeline S.: The Cooking Engineer, A Play. February, 44.
Luebbers, Lita H.:
A Home Appreciation Course. January, 5.
Buying the Institution's Groceries. March, 82.
Suggestions for Teaching Home Appreciation. May, 133.
Buying Fruits and Vegetables for the Cafeteria. June, 177.
Catering to the College Girl. August, 243.
The Lunchroom, An Undeveloped Natural Resource; Edna Lewis. October, 295.
Lynde, Lydia Ann:
A New World Ideal. March, 76.
Some Adventures in Appreciation. May, 144.

M

Mack, Fay: Evaluation of Training for Boys in Home Economics. April, 104.
Mack, Pauline Beery: Laundry Certification. September, 277.
The Magic Harebell, A Play; Dorothy Gladys Spicer. April, 111.
Making a Cotton School Dress; Erna E. Proctor. August, 225.
Making History. March, 89.
Manners and Conduct in the School Lunch Room; Flavilla Normington. May, 145.
Martin, Ethel A.: The School Lunch as a Health Agency. April, 113.
Massey, Nelle, and Christy, Erma: The School Cafeteria Helps to Solve the Depression Problem. February, 50.
McBryan, Donna J.: Felt Award Letters as a Home Economics Project. July, 216.
McCray, Doris W.:
Facts for Food Teachers,—A Good Cup of Coffee. January, 21.
Planning and Equipping the Unit Kitchen. December, 349.
McGinnis, Esther: Child Development and Home Economics in Minnesota. June, 171.
Michaels, Ruth E. June, 175. (Who's Who.)
Miller, Cora B.:
Be A Roman. January, 16.
Depression Upkeep. March, 78.
Programming Home Economics. December, 366.
Model Housing Projects; Elizabeth Brannigan. February, 43.
The Monthly Home Economics Exhibit; Frank R. Arnold. July, 198.
Morse, Mariam S.: One Hundred Years Between, A Play. November, 322.
Mullins, Edna B.: A Study of the Management of School Lunchrooms. February, 49.
Myers, Rose Chilcote: New Opportunities in Home Economics As the Parent Sees It. July, 204.

N

Nebraska 4-H Lunches. January, 20.
Newark, Christine: The Use of Leisure. August, 234.
A New Course of Study. February, 58.
New Facts on Quality Foods in Quantity; Mabelle S. Ehlers. September, 261.
New Finishes for Old Furniture; Helen B. Ames. October, 292.

New Opportunities in Home Economics; M. S. Van Liew. June, 165.
New Opportunities in Home Economics As the Parent Sees It; Rose Chilcote Myers. July, 204.
New Opportunities in Home Economics As a Principal Sees It; Vincent Geiger. July, 203.
A New World Ideal; Lydia Ann Lynde. March, 76.
Normington, Flavilla: Manners and Conduct in the School Lunch Room. May, 145.
Nystrom, Paul H.: The Home As Consumer. July, 216.

O

O'Connor, Annette: Take a Vacation—Come to Convention. June, 184.
Oerke, Bess: A Contract on the Care of the House for Freshman High School Girls. January, 15.
One Hundred Years Between; Marian S. Morse. November, 322.
Opportunities for Home Economics in the Present Crisis; Winnie Mae Cobb. July, 199.
Opportunities Open to Home Economics College Graduates; Margaret M. Edwards. August, 223.
Origin of Salads and Mayonnaise; Mary H. Griffin. July, 208.
Our Question Box. March, 81.
Our Vocational Dressmaking Course; Hazel Barrows. October, 293.

P

Paige, Mae D.: Feeding Elementary School Children by Cafeteria Service. November, 326.
Patterson, Mattie: School Food Problems in the Midst of Plenty. December, 360.
Pearson, Millie: The High School Graduating Dress. January, 26.
Peet, Louise J.: Betty Ames Prepares for Business. April, 105.
Personality Development Guidance in Teacher Training Institutions; Lilian C. W. Baker. February, 41.
Pies and Pie Makers of British Fame; Dorothy Gladys Spicer. September, 257.
Planning and Equipping the Unit Kitchen; Doris McCray. December, 349.
Planning the Family Christmas; Opal Waymire List. November, 330.
Plant Forms in Ornament; Elizabeth Brannigan. July, 201.
Plate Lunches in the School Cafeteria; Elsmer W. Addkison. August, 242.
Play School Observation in Child Development; Myra Sowell. April, 101.
Pottle, Theodora: Art as a Factor in Everyday Living. June, 169.
A Practical Fashion Show; Ruth Cushman. August, 236.
Proctor, Erna E.: Making a Cotton School Dress. August, 225.
Programming Home Economics; Cora B. Miller. December, 366.
Pure Food in the Middle Ages; Euphemia Torry. January, 29.

Q

A Quality Exhibit. December, 357.

R

Radder, Eleanor A.: Teaching a Boy to Cook and a Girl to Saw. June, 182.
Report of the Cooperative Studies Committee; Carlotta C. Greer. January, 8.
A Report of the Minneapolis Meeting. May, 134.
Rhyne, Madge M.: Developing Home Economics Course under Difficulties. August, 238.
Ringle, Marie P.: Graded Difficulties in Teaching Foods. June, 166.
Robinette, Gladys E.: A Child Development Unit. September, 253.
Robinson, Ethelyn C. June, 175. (Who's Who.)
Rogers, Esther: Toys as an Introduction to Child Study. February, 39.
Rogers, Gertrude A.: School Lunch Organization in Small Schools. April, 117.
Romance and Magic in Pins; Gladys Dorothy Spicer. October, 289.
Rose, Flora. August, 233. (Who's Who.)
Ruhrah, John: Child Training among the Aztecs. August, 228.

S

The School Cafeteria Helps to Solve the Depression Problem; Nelle Massey and Erma Christy. February, 50.
School Food Problems in the Midst of Plenty; Mattie Patterson. December, 360.
The School Lunch as a Health Agency; Ethel Austin Martin. April, 113.
School Lunches in Chicago. January, 20.
School Lunches in Hammonton, Ohio; Gertrude Hobbs. October, 298.
The School Lunch Offers Training in Management; Elsie Wilson. May, 146.
School Lunch Organization in Small Schools; Mildred M. Hunt. April, 116.
School Lunch Organization in Small Schools; Mary F. Welch. April, 117.
School Lunch Organization in Small Schools; Gertrude A. Rogers. April, 117.
School Lunches in Puerto Rico. July, 209.
Second Helpings. March, 81.
Setting Up School Lunch Standards. March, 80.
Sewing Aids from Notion Counters; Blanche E. Hyde. April, 106.
A Sewing Bee in Holland; Von Uhde. November (Frontispiece).
The Shopping Trail in Europe; Frank R. Arnold. May, 142.
Shultz, Hazel: The Teaching of Family Relationships at Secondary Level. December, 347.
Simkhovitch, Mary K.: Why Don't We Want To Go Home? October, 283.
A Simple Solution to the Hot Lunch Problem; Angelyn Warwick. June, 180.
Smith, Anne H.: A Home Management Course. August, 237.
Some Adventures in Appreciation; Lydia Ann Lynde. May, 144.
Some Original Toys for Young Children; Dorothy Tyler. March, 72.
Songs of the Shuttle; Dorothy Gladys Spicer. March, 71.
Sowell, Myra:
Play School Observation in Child Development. April, 101.
A Breakfast Unit for High School Girls. November, 315.
So You're Going to Milwaukee; Doris Cleveland. May, 137.
Spafford, Ivol Octa. October, 294. (Who's Who.)
Spicer, Dorothy G.:
The Drink of God's People. January, 13.
Songs of the Shuttle. March, 71.
The Magic Harebell, A Play. April, 111.
"A Hande-Kercher at Thy Girdle." May, 141.
Water—the Beauty Charm of the Ages. July, 206.
Pies and Pie Makers of British Fame. September, 257.
Romance and Magic in Pins. October, 289.
Gingerbread Was a Favorite with the Ancients. October, 300.
Almond Cakes Were Eaten in Ancient Rome. November, 332.
Cakes for the King's Birthday. December, 354.
Raisin Cake Was a Seventeenth Century Favorite. December, 370.
Sprague, Mary E. September, 258. (Who's Who.)
Stackhouse, Daisy M.:
Meal Planning from Welfare Food Lists. June, 168.
Equipment Problems in the Small School Lunch Room. November, 328.
Stanley, Louise. November, 321. (Who's Who.)
Storms, Lilian B. June, 175. (Who's Who.)
A Study of the Management of School Lunchrooms; Edna B. Mullins. February, 49.
Sugarman, Diane: Home Economics in Port Chester High School. October, 290.
Suggestions for Teaching Home Appreciation; Lita H. Luebbers. May, 133.

18378

Sutcliffe, Doris K.: Hot School Lunches in Rural Rhode Island. July, 207.
Swain, Frances L. June, 174. (Who's Who.)

T

Tait, Ruth: Treasure Bags. April, 119.
Teaching a Boy to Cook and a Girl to Saw. Hadder and Baker. June, 182.
Take a Vacation—Come to Convention; Annette O'Connor. June, 184.
Teaching Color Appreciation; Katharine Lee Grable. September, 255.
Teaching Family Relationships at Secondary Level; Hazel Shultz. December, 347.
Textile Arts in the American Home; Grace G. Denny. May, 131.
The Third Girl—A Hazard of Young Womanhood; Jessamine S. Whitney. April, 118.
Torry, Euphemia:
Pure Food in the Middle Ages. January, 29.
Home Economics in Poland. October, 285.
Home Economics is Practical in Sweden. November, 323.
Toys as an Introduction to Child Study; Esther Rogers. February, 39.
Treasure Bags; Ruth Tait. April, 119.
Trends in Children's Clothing; Josephine F. Eddy. February, 40.
Turner, Marcia E.: Filling the Gap between Knowing and Doing. May, 138.
Tyler, Dorothy: Some Original Toys for Young Children. March, 72.

U

Uhde, Frederic Von. "A Sewing Bee in Holland." November (Frontispiece).
A Unit in the Selection of Shoes; Mabel Dunlap. November, 319.
Urquhart, Nancy: We Learn to Cook. May, 150.
The Use of Leisure; Christine Newark. August, 234.
The Use of Sewing Machine Attachments; Blanche E. Hyde. July, 196.
The Value of Cooperation; Edna J. Benson. September, 250.

V

Van Liew, Marion S.: New Opportunities in Home Economics as the Supervisor Sees It. June, 165.
von Berge, Edna E.: An Experiment with Meal-Planning. December, 371.

W

Wall, Jessie M. October, 294. (Who's Who.)
Wampler, M. Letta: A Dollar a Day Diet. April, 103.
Warnick, Angelyn: A Simple Solution to the Hot Lunch Problem. June, 180.
Water, the Beauty Charm of the Ages; Dorothy Gladys Spicer. July, 206.
We Learn to Cook; Nancy Urquhart. May, 150.
Welch, Mary F.: School Lunch Organization in Small Schools. April, 117.
Westfall, Martha:
v. Adams, Josephine.
Wharton, Elna Harwood: The Copeland Bill S-1944. December, 352.
What Color and Why—Clothing; Katharine L. Grable. October, 287.
What Color and Why—Interiors; Katharine L. Grable. December, 364.
What Do You Know About Christmas Customs? December, 364.
What Do You Think? A Text Book for the Private School? Edith N. Estarabadi. January, 15.
When We Buy Fabrics; Leon Anne Heuer. January, 6.
Whitney, S. Jessamine: The Third Girl—A Hazard of Young Womanhood. April, 118.
Who's Who:
June, 174-175.
Babcock, Ella.
Barber, Mary I.
Ganz, Alma M.
Greer, Carlotta C.
Hess, Adah H.
Michaels, Ruth.
Robinson, Ethelyn.
Storms, Lillian B.
Swain, Frances L.
Zuill, Frances.
August, 233.
Blunt, Katherine.
Rose, Flora.
September, 258.
Freegard, Ruth.
Sprague, Mary Estella.
October, 294.
Spafford, Ivol Octa.
Wall, Jessie M.
November, 321.
Baylor, Adelaide Steele.
Stanley, Louise.
December, 359.
Elliott, Essie L.
Kauffman, Treva E.
Why Don't We Want to Go Home? Mary K. Simkhovitch. October, 283.
Wile, Ira S.: Home Economics and Life Attitudes. January, 9.
Williams, Luella A.: An Experiment In Serving Hot Lunches. January, 19.
Wilson, Elsie: The School Lunch Offers Training in Management. May, 146.
The Home Economics Class and Everyday Clothing Needs. March, 69.
Wilson, Mabel: Better Results in Home Project Work. May, 144.
Winning, Freda J.: The Family Clothing Problem. November, 316.
Work Units in the Study of Starches and Their Effect on Washable Fabrics; Charlotte M. Brackett. September, 251.
Work Units in Textile Analysis; Charlotte M. Brackett. February, 37.
Wyckoff, Gladys: A Home Project Camp. February, 45.

Y

Your Table and Its Appointments; Leon Anne Heuer. August, 231.

Z

Zuill, Frances. June, 174. (Who's Who.)

XUM